

At the Centennial of Harvey's Founding

In the picture above His Honor the Lieut. Governor of New Brunswick, Colonel Murray MacLaren, C. M. G., is shown delivering his address at the centennial observation of the settlement of the community of Harvey, York County, Friday afternoon. The stand from which His Honor is shown speaking was erected on community ground at the lakeside, Harvey Station. The Taylor Memorial Community Hall is shown in the rear, and part of the great gathering of people also can be seen. On the platform are Warden Frank B. Coburn, chairman, the Rt. Hon. Countess of Ashburnham, Hon. A. A. Dysart, Premier of New Brunswick, Hon. J. B. McNair, E. W. Stairs, M.P.P., Rev. Mr. Kirkland, Rev. Hugh McLean, Rev. Father Walter Donahoe, D. G. Taylor, Dr. B. H. Dougan, ex-M.P.P., Supt. Robert McKillop, Canadian Pacific Railway, L. J. Gay, Mrs. J. B. McNair, Mrs. D. G. Taylor, Mrs. W. C. Crocket, Major W. G. Jones, A. D. C. to His Honor.